"We are very excited to announce the opening of our second location in New York City," said Gian Luca Spriano, CEO of Helbiz Kitchen Inc. "Being able to cover a wide area of the city through two strategically located areas of operations will enable us to serve a vast audience from launch."

The first three brands available at the New York City location include Burger & Sons, Pokaii, and What the Farm. Customers can conveniently place orders from these brands through the Kitchen United MIX App, on-site kiosks, and popular third-party apps such as UberEats, DoorDash, and GrubHub.

Helbiz Kitchen is committed to further growth in North America and plans to expand its operations to other key markets across the country in the near future.
