Electric mobility arrives in Rimini with MiMoto and Be Charge.

Present at the launch event were the Councillor for Mobility and Transport of the Emilia-Romagna Region, Andrea Corsini, and the Mayor of Rimini, Andrea Gnassi.

- The joint project of the two companies for the renewal of electric mobility starts from the capital of Romagna
- Among the initiatives in favor of intermodality, there is also a rental formula related to the columns to use electric scooters while recharging the car.
- The opening of the Helbiz summer season continues

Rimini, May 24, 2021 - Helbiz, a global leader in micro-mobility that is the business combination target of GreenVision Acquisition Corp. (Nasdaq: GRNV), and recently acquired MiMoto Smart Mobility S.r.l., the Italian leader in the scooter sharing market, and Be Charge, a Be Power S.p.A. Group company dedicated to the deployment of charging infrastructures for electric mobility, bring electric mobility to Rimini through a MiMoto by Helbiz branded scooter sharing service and an extensive charging network.

The initiative is part of a wide-ranging project that aims to develop and spread electric mobility in Emilia-Romagna, a region in which there are already over 1,200 Helbiz two-wheelers, including electric bikes and scooters. Specifically, about 50 vehicles will be 100% electric scooters branded MiMoto initially available to residents and visitors to the resort of Romagna that can move in the city center and along the coast.

Be Charge can count on more than 370 recharging points already active in Emilia-Romagna, of which 84 points in Rimini, 8 of which are currently being activated.

The city of Rimini is thus confirmed as an innovator and pioneer of electric mobility with MiMoto's electric scooters and Be Charge's charging stations.

To underscore the technological spirit of Emilia-Romagna and the city of Rimini, the launching ceremony of this initiative was presided over by the Councillor for Mobility and Transport, Infrastructure, Tourism and Commerce of the Emilia-Romagna Region, Andrea Corsini, accompanied by the Mayor of Rimini, Andrea Gnassi.

Environmental sustainability, sharing economy and smart mobility as the key to improve people's quality of life are the values shared by MiMoto and Be Charge for the development of a project that has a common mission: to become the reference point of the new mobility. Hence the idea of joining efforts together with the Emilia-Romagna region and the city of Rimini, realities that are facing with a spirit of innovation and attention to the community important challenges of sustainability that have a global impact and that must be addressed on every territorial reality of which we have management. Added to all this is the presence of tourists during the summer period that make Rimini a unique city.

On the one hand, together in a synergistic way, then, sustainability, innovation, quality and efficiency of the vehicles offered by Helbiz thanks to the MiMoto brand and the infrastructure of electric columns of Be Charge, and, on the other hand, Emilia-Romagna and Rimini that represent the best combination to develop a real electric ecosystem that aims to improve the mobility habits of citizens.

The partnership with Be Charge will also make it possible to promote the rental of vehicles with greater capillarity throughout the territory and to offer value-added services. Among these services, there is also a way to use sharing during car recharging time, which takes the concept of intermodality to a new level in terms of efficiency and sustainability.

"Rimini was one of the first cities in Italy to invest and bet with conviction on electric micro-mobility, becoming today a point of reference in the country for the experimentation of new forms of sustainable mobility - comments the mayor of Rimini Andrea Gnassi - Shared scooters are now a consolidated reality, soon we will start with the experimentation of electric car sharing and today the launch of Mimoto and Becharge services project Rimini among the most advanced Italian tourist destinations, with a wide range of offers for citizens and temporary visitors. These services are part of a path that Rimini has been following for years and which sees the environment, the reconquest of urban spaces and the regeneration in a green key as strategic factors for the tourist and therefore economic development of the city. Cities must emerge from the different pandemic: less smog and fewer cars, more well-being and more space. Rimini, thanks to the courage of its choices, is already on this path".

"Our development plan - said Roberto Colicchio, Head of Business Development of Our development plan - said Roberto Colicchio, Head of Business Development of Be Charge - is ambitious: we plan to install about 30,000 charging points throughout the country in the next 3-5 years that will provide 100% energy from renewable sources, for a total investment of over 150 million euros. We are already well on our way with over 3,500 charging points already installed and the same number already authorized. The role of municipalities remains central to enable this development because only with the collaboration of local authorities we can build the charging infrastructure for electric vehicles needed in our country. That of Rimini is a virtuous example that has been able to involve different operators such as Helbiz and Be Charge to meet the mobility needs of citizens and tourists".

"We are extremely proud to arrive in Rimini for the summer of 2021 - say together the three founders of MiMoto Alessandro Vincenti, Gianluca Iorio and Vittorio Muratore - Launching our service together with Be Charge in a beautiful area like Romagna, a symbol of Italianness in the world is to be considered an excellent result especially in a historical period like the one we are living due to the health emergency. We are really happy to bring here, too, our philosophy characterized by sharing and sustainability that, in a seaside resort like Rimini, has an even stronger meaning. Today the MiMoto scooter sharing service has become strategic for moving around the city, giving a great contribution to the citizen and the municipal administration by acting as a support for both public and private transport".

The service is accessible to anyone who downloads the MiMoto app, available for iOS and Android: from the app's interface, one can search for the nearest eScooter, book it and make the ride at a cost of 0.35 euros per minute, 14.90 euros per hour or 59 euros for the entire day. Each MiMoto scooter is approved for two passengers and comes with two helmets of different sizes in the top box, equipped with hygienic perfumers, disposable hygienic caps and a self-drying helmet foam for the safety of users.

To recharge at BeCharge recharging stations it is sufficient to install and register on "BeCharge" App, free download from Google Play and Apple App Store. Through the App it is also possible to view the map of all BeCharge charging stations on the territory, check availability in real time and the type of socket of the various charging points, as well as the price in €/kWh delivered. The cost of the recharge will be directly charged to the credit card associated with the user's account. If the device is equipped with a navigator (Google Maps or Apple Maps) it is also possible to obtain driving instructions to reach the individual charging stations. Once the recharge is activated, it is possible to monitor its progress directly from the App. The call center is always available 24/7.
